GODREJ SAFES ROMANTIC STORY OF AN INDIAN INDUSTRY

The noted safe and soap manufacturer had no path of roses before him when he started his remarkable industrial career.

Rabindranath Tagore and Dr Annie Besant endorsed Godrej products; the company's ballot box for first elections; its pioneering typewriter; now also part of Brahmos

After having used the best of European and American Soaps, the late, revered Dr. Annie Besant once wrote in her paper "New India".

"Godrej's Soaps are the best I have ever used and I am recommending them to my Friends."

Nadir Godrej

From making India live on her hump to taking her to space, Godrej has played a pivotal role in nation building. Its story is represented by two products that over the years have become an essential part of India's middle-class: fridge and steel almirahs

Plus

- With acquisitions, expansion and new businesses, Godrej is spreading its wings. It is also simplifying its international operations
- India can be great for manufacturing, says Nadir Godrej, chairman and MD, Godrej Industries, in an exclusive interview

COVER STORY

Understanding the cure

Yoga has become a valuable tool in the practice of mind-body medicine. Researchers say yoga can help patients with heart disorders, diabetes, blood pressure and episodic migraine.

The epicentre of research into yoga's therapeutic effects is the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Delhi, where practitioners of modern medicine collaborate with practitioners of yoga and ayurveda. Taking keen interest are scientists worldwide.

- President Droupadi Murmu: Yoga is one of India's greatest gifts to the world
- A research centre in the US records increased intelligence and improved health in practitioners of transcendental meditation

- We see enormous opportunity for expanding yoga-related 'Made in India' products: Sarbananda Sonowal, minister of Ayush
