COVER STORY

04 India reinventing supply chains amid global disruptions

In the face of rising costs, disrupted trade routes, and evolving global policies, Indian businesses are reshaping their supply chains through strategic resilience, technology adoption, and market diversification.

INDUSTRY REPORT

10 How is the Indian air cargo sector flying to new heights?

India's air cargo hits 195,000 tonnes per month, up 13% from 2019. Over the past five years, the sector has emerged from the pandemic-induced disruption to become a key pillar of national and international trade.

CITY REPORT

18 Chennai: A strategic gateway for South India's trade expansion

Known as the "Detroit of India," Chennai has emerged as a key trade gateway for India and the world, driven by its robust port infrastructure, expanding air cargo capacity, and thriving automotive sector.
