OLD HAND IN BATTLE MODE

Kamal Nath, 76, is fighting the toughest and most significant contest of his career. The hands-on leader has set himself a punishing schedule as he helms the Congress's bid to win back Madhya Pradesh. Critics of the veteran leader say that his soft hindutva pitch may backfire

PLUS

- Interview: Religion has no place in politics and politics has no place in religion, says Kamal Nath
- Interview: Anti-incumbency exists only if work has not been done, says V.D. Sharma, Madhya Pradesh BJP president
- In election-bound Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan, the Congress is wearing saffron on its sleeve to nullify the BJP's poll plank
